

INSTRUCTIONS FOR UL LAFAYETTE NON-FACULTY RESEARCHER APPLICATION

The University of Louisiana at Lafayette (UL Lafayette) offers Non-faculty Researcher (NFR) positions to qualified individuals recommended by a faculty or researcher at the University. Please see the instructions below to complete the application process.

Instructions:

- The NFR will start the application process and send it to the sponsor upon completing all relevant information and signature. The application form can be found on the next page.
- Upon signing, the sponsor must submit the document to the department head. If the sponsor is not affiliated with any academic department, the signed application will be submitted to the Center Director for approval.
- The Department Head/Center Director will send the signed document to the respective Dean or Institute Director.
- Deans and Institute Directors are requested to send the signed application to the AVP for Research, Innovation, and Economic Development, who will process a letter of invitation on behalf of the VP for Research, Innovation, and Economic Development.

A few relevant definitions are:

Non-faculty Researchers: All doctorate-holding researchers who are (1) not considered either postdoctoral researchers or members of the faculty and (2) involved principally in science and engineering or health-related research activities.

Sponsor: All tenured and tenure-track UL Lafayette faculty members can serve as a sponsor.
